

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Ahif, Arvin

In memory of Arvin “Tex” Ahif. We feel that Tex rated among the best in his profession.

Marjorie Ahif and Family

Ahlf, Arvin

Mr. Arvin “Tex” Ahlf was a professional educator who placed students “first”- a great human being.

George & Angie Longo

Akey, Marguerite

Thoughtful, wise, understanding- who encouraged me during my very early years of teaching and has remained a friend these many years.

Janice Frazee

Akey, Marguerite

For Marguerite Akey, loyal friend, inspiring colleague, superb teacher.

Carol Karow

Altrusa Club Teacher Members

†To recognize and honor those members of the Sheboygan Altrusa Club, who as women educators, past and present, have made dual contributions to the community.

Altrusa Club of Sheboygan

Anderson, Olivia

Olivia Anderson was an outstanding grade school teacher for many Van Akkerens going to Longfellow School. She is our dear friend.

Jan Van Akkeren

Bach, Edith A. Droppers

In memory of Edith A. Droppers Bach.

Erwin J. Bach

Bach, Erwin J.

In memory of Erwin Bach. Long-time principal and educator in the Sheboygan Area School District whose work touched the lives of many people.

Mrs. Wilma Bach and Friends

Bach, Erwin J.

In memory of Mr. Erwin J. Bach, principal of Pigeon River Elementary School from 1972 to 1982, under whose leadership a new facility was constructed in 1981.

*Fondly remembered by Faculty,
Staff, and PTA at Pigeon
River Elementary School*

Bawden, Alice

Tribute to Alice Bawden’s 80th birthday and to honor her years as a teacher.

Olive B. Beach

Bawden, Alice

Mrs. Alice (Irving) Bawden taught 15 years in Sheboygan Public School System, 9 years at the Rehabilitation Center.

Shirley Steinbruecker

Becker, Esther

A caring career of teaching English and Social Studies to hundreds of students at Urban Junior High and for post-retirement volunteer teaching aid.

Kerry and Susan Becker

Beniger, James and Linda

This tribute for our two children, James and Linda, who received their public education in Sheboygan, and who have both attained careers as educators.

Mr. & Mrs. Ralph Beniger

Bishop, LeRoy C.

To LeRoy C. Bishop, principal of Madison, Jefferson, and Urban Junior High School, 1959-1972. Established a dress code during miniskirt period while at Urban Junior High.

Carol Bly

Bly, Gordon

Gordon Bly, who determined to be an educator, worked his way through college, spent his summers earning his Master’s Degree, attained his goal- Principal of Washington, Lincoln, Grant Schools.

Carol E. Bly

Bly, Gordon

In tribute to Gordon Bly, past Principal of Grant Elementary School, for his dedication and contributions to the early education of our children.

Herb & Myra Schneider

Born, Eldon

In memory of Eldon (Curly) Born, an educator, conservationist, and sportsman who touched many lives during his more than forty years as a teacher in Sheboygan Schools.

Agnes Born & Family

Born, Eldon

In remembrance of fellow teacher Eldon (Curly) Born.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

*M. Peterson, R. Ebert, H. Vieth, A. Wandrey, V. Kopp,
H. Lautenschlager, L. Rock, R. Gibson, J. Van Veghel,
W. Altman, A. Mather, H. Rilling, W. Soeteber, E.
Goebel, R. Griffith, R. Alby, H. Henninger.*

Brainard, Gladys Ives

Professor of Piano, Lawrence University. Wonderfully eccentric, Gladys Ives Brainard translated musical notation into sheer beauty, thereby providing insights into the art of piano performance.

George Larsen

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Bromley, Richard J.

In memory of Richard J. Bromley from his family.
Mrs. Wilma Bach

Buchen, Anne

Anne was a good friend and such a devoted member of Landmarks that we thought it would be appropriate to remember her in this fashion.

Joan & Art Olsen

Business Services Department

In tribute to Directors of Business Services Daniel Moberly and John Brozovich and department staff members whose services contributed to the success of the project.

Nancy Z. Schreiber

Dahlberg, Ebba

Ebba Dahlberg was an excellent math teacher. Parents sought her out for tutoring their children because she had the skill of making it understandable. Her long career had an impact on many students.

*Esther Becker, Judy Dittman,
Sally Meerdink, Ann Parsons,
& Kathie Stieber*

Dahlberg, Ebba

To Ebba Dahlberg, the former Army W.A.C. teacher who had a great influence upon my education and life. She was caring, enthusiastic, witty, and sincere.

George P. Longo

DeBruine, Jean

To Jean: for helpfulness, patience, and calm in all manner of school situations. What a wonderful example and good friend you have been for us all.

*Mapledale Breakfast Club-
Francha Barnard, Shirley Dobbe,
Marguerite Kopp, Susan Meidam,
Roamelle Nigbor, Kathy Noebel,
Margery Price, Jan Roeber, Sandy Roth*

Dell'Agnese, David

In special recognition of David Dell'Agnese, Manager of Buildings and Grounds, whose professional standards of excellence assured that the restoration of Heritage School would be an exceptional example of preservation.

Nancy Z. Schreiber

Derfus' "Children"

I owe my gratitude to the many children who have given me joy over 44 years of teaching them.

Adela Derfus

Eddy, Russell

Hats off and a standing ovation to Russell Eddy, an excellent musician, teacher, director, and a friend and inspiration to many.

Samuel A. Romeis

Eisentraut, Myrna & Rodney Gibson

Rodney Gibson and Myrna Eisentraut, directors of music and special teachers whose legacy is a life-long appreciation of music, both vocal and instrumental.

Carol Vieth

Everhard, Ethel

In tribute to Ethel Everhard, Art Supervisor, Sheboygan Schools, whose generous 1966 legacy to the library continues to enrich the library and its patrons.

Mead Public Library Staff Association

Fetzer, Ron & Terrie

Thank you for the years of dedication and service to the students and staff of Jackson Elementary School.

Jackson School Staff

Forell Son's Teachers

To all the teachers who were responsible for the education of our son.

Gerald & Eleanor Forell

Forrer, Minnie M.

To honor Minnie M. Forrer, Head of the English Department, Sheboygan High School, whose 1978 bequest to the library continues to benefit the community.

Mead Public Library Staff Association

Fraze, Janice

For Janice Frazee, whose direct, down-to-earth approach has given many children the security they would otherwise lack in their lives.

Barbara D. Larsen

Friedli, Aurelia & Sharon Kudirko

Miss Aurelia Friedli and Mrs. Sharon Kudirko- The two women who shaped my adolescence more than any one except my mother. THANK YOU BOTH.

Walter Vollrath III

Galbraith, Charlotte

For Char Galbraith, for the many young hearts and young minds which you have inspired.

*Kiira & Chelsea Petersen &
Kathleen & Brian Thielhelm*

Garton, Virginia

To Virginia Garton- The gift is in honor of the best teacher I ever had- you. Thanks.

Donna & Michael Garton

Garton, Virginia

Thanks for everything you have done for Sheboygan education. You have accomplished many wonderful things. You're terrific, Aunt Jinny!

Virginia Vollrath Kauer

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Gesch, Wilfred

Students of Cooper School dedicate an Apple Award in honor of Wilfred Gesch for his many years of dedication to education.

Cooper School PTA

Gibson, Rodney & Myra Eisentraut

Rodney Gibson and Myrna Eisentraut, directors of music and special teachers whose legacy is a life-long appreciation of music, both vocal and instrumental.

Carol Vieth

Goebel, Edward H.

In loving recognition of the insights into the humanities and into life given to us both in words and example by Edward H. Goebel.

Children and Grandchildren of Edward Goebel

Goebel, Edward H.

A teacher who always showed us in the classroom and out, that character building is by far the most important element of any education.

Mary & Tada'aki Noguchi

Gorges, Robert

A teacher of great integrity and intellect who communicated a love for his subject- through respect, humor, and high expectations of his students.

Harriet Edler Sheaffer

Gorman, Dora

In memory of my Aunt, Dora Gorman, who taught in Sheboygan Schools for over forty years.

Mary Dwyre

Grashorn, Robert

I would like to pay tribute to my late husband, Robert Grashorn, who attended a one-room school on the South side, circa 1907-15.

Burdie Grashorn

Greenewald, Alverna

Vern has been an inspiration as a teacher and friend. She's a devoted teacher who showed particular sensitivity and understanding to her students- a terrific example to all of us.

Miles and Susan Meidam

Griffith, Jean

Jean Griffith contributed significantly to education in Sheboygan as a teacher and school board member. For years she served as counselor to the elderly and in many service activities.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Hahn, Beatrice

We remember Bea Hahn as a lifelong environmentalist, a teacher ready to help young people know about their rights and responsibilities as citizens in a democracy.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Hartenberger, Henry Jr.

In memory of Henry Hartenberger Jr.

Lois Hartenberger

Hein, Twilah

For Twilah Hein- Thanks for a successful start for Mary, Katie, and Sue Kopp.

Vern & Marguerite Kopp

Heritage School Committee Members

In tribute to each citizen and school administrator member who served continuously or from time to time, from project inception to dedication, for holding onto the vision of what this restoration project could be and for their determination to turn that vision into a reality.

Nancy Z. Schreiber

Herman, Helen

A kindly woman whose standards never deviated from excellence, Helen Herman, classroom teacher and drama coach-enriched lives of all whom she came in contact.

George Larsen

Herman, Helen

Helen Herman was an inspirational dramatics coach for many North High students. We honor her memory as a teacher of distinction who made a difference.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Intravaia, Vito

Vito Intravaia was an excellent teacher. He showed a genuine interest in each student and they loved and respected him for his concern and dedication.

*The Family of James &
Annette (Dekker) Intravaia*

Jackson School Staff of 1985-86

Julie Creamer, Mary Jean Kuhlmann, Judi Nigrelli, Edith Kuenne, Patricia Grams, Roger Hintz, Richard Greene, Delpha McAloon, Anne Grimm, Tim Crowns, Francha Barnard, Ronald Strahl, Debbie Stevens, Orville Harvat, Paul Thielhelm, Joe Reklaitis, Mary Neese, Barbara Schimpf, Erna Kamphuis, Jeanne Bitkers- A caring staff who have combined their intelligence and expertise to develop children to their highest potential not only as students but as worthy citizens.

Aletha Scherer

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Jacobs, Beulah

The year Southside Junior High opened, Beulah Jacobs taught fifth grade there. She was enthusiastic, understanding, and my favorite teacher.

Jan Van Akkeren

Johnson, Gertrude E.

I wish to honor Gertrude E. Johnson of the U. W. Madison Speech Department. She was my mentor and influenced me in choosing teaching as a career.

Marie Falzo

Johnson, Julie

Thanks for making school so enjoyable.

Virginia Vollrath Kauer

Johnson, Leslie W.

In memory of Leslie W. Johnson.

Mr. & Mrs. Fredric Nehring

Johnson, Leslie, W.

Leslie. W. Johnson was responsible for bringing us to Sheboygan and employment in the Sheboygan Public Schools, a move we have never regretted.

Mr. & Mrs. Elroy Rundle

Karow, Carol

Carol Karow is a dedicated professional who has enriched not only the lives of students at Jefferson School but also the lives of her family.

Her Family

Karow, Carol

In memory of Carol Ann Karow- Carol had a great interest in the ongoing projects at Heritage School.

Twilah Hein, Joyce & Henry
Klusmeier, Helen & bud
Keppler, Virginia Coyen, Luvern
& Marguerite Kopp, Muriel &
Dick Langenhahn, Michael &
Kathy Janikowski, Faith
Wierman, Mrs. Helen Lutze,
Jack & Min Olson, Virginia
Stetson, Etta Owen, SASD
Instructional Services Sunshine
Group on behalf of Ellen
Klusmeier, Nancy Nohl
& Family

Kendall, James

A dedicated quality teacher of music, Sheboygan (south side) Public Schools, deeply influenced my life through hid discipline, encouragement, and generous hours of teaching- good schmaltz.

Sandy Goodell Testwuide

Kiehl, Arthur

Furthermore, Art Kiehl is SPECIAL, both as a Public School(s) Music Educator, and as the Beloved Senior Director of St. Luke United Methodist Church!

Arthur & Harriet Jensen

Kleinhans, Cora

To my mother, Cora Kleinhans, whose creative teaching and interest in education encouraged me to follow in her footsteps.

*With love,
Faye Kleinhans Hughes*

Klusmeier, Joyce

To Joyce Klusmeier, given for her hard work, dedication, kindness, and thoughtfulness to the students and staff of Jefferson School over the past twenty years.

Jefferson School PTA

Knocke, Lydia

This donation is made in honor of my favorite teacher, Lydia Knocke, who stirred in me an interest in taking the long journey to understand our own language from both an oral and literary viewpoint.

David Garton

Knocke, Lydia

To Lydia Knocke, a great English teacher at U.S. Grant School.

Robert Leverenz

Kopp, Marguerite

Marguerite has been the supreme teacher- always kind and helpful to her colleagues, and always keeping the students' best interest as top priority in her work.

*Susan Meidam, Karen Grace, Jackie Sorensen,
Margery Price, Kathy Noebel, Judy Albert,
Susan Wilterdink, Twilah Hein, Mary Gephart,
Sharon Matthias, Francha Barnard, Roamelle
Nigbor, Joyce Klusmeier, Jean DeBruine,
Muriel Langanhahn, Carol Karow, Helen
Keppler, Shirley Dobbe, Carol Rost, Janita
Holgate*

Krueger, Marjorie

In special recognition of Marge Krueger, Secretary for Administrative Services, whose many services and gracious assistance to all the volunteers made the Heritage School Project particularly memorable.

Nancy Z. Schreiber

Kuck, Elaine

Elaine Kuck, Washington School's Teacher of the Year, 1987-88.

Washington School Staff

Kudirko, Sharon & Aurelia Friedli

Miss Aurelia Friedli and Mrs. Sharon Kudirko- The two women who shaped my adolescence more than any one except my mother, THANK YOU BOTH.

Walter Vollrath III

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Kuene, Edith & Carl

Edith and Carl Kuene touched the lives of many children and adults. Their acts of kindness, dedication, and caring were daily events in school, church, and community.

Jackson Elementary PTA

Kuhlmann, Mary Jean

We, the Jackson PTA, sincerely thank Mary Jean Kuhlmann for ten years of dedication and service to Jackson School and our children.

Jackson School PTA

Kunz, Edna

For Edna Kunz: “King of the Kindergarten teachers.”

Anonymous

Landgraf, Edward S.

Thanks to Edward S. Landgraf, my teacher and friend, who helped me, develop a positive self-image and an appreciation for the arts.

Elmer R. Koppelman

Larsen, Barbara Donahue

Barbara Larsen’s demonstrated library abilities, visionary ideas which became realities, and many talents combined to provide a new breath to SASD library services.

George Larsen

Larsen, George & Ralph Percey

George Larsen & Ralph Percey for their energy and enthusiasm in producing Brigadoon.

Joseph W. Garton

Larsen, George

For my husband George Larsen who exemplifies H. B. Adams’ quotation: “A teacher affects eternity: He can never tell where his influence stops.”

Barbara D. Larsen

Leverenz, Henry

A word of tribute to Henry Leverenz, Sheboygan’s first Superintendent of Schools.

Robert Leverenz

Lingle, Brent

In memory of Brent Lingle, former Sheboygan educator—may his wisdom, kindness, and the memory of his laughter live on in those he touched.

Gordon Klauber

Longfellow Staff

The value of education cannot be measured. Longfellow Staff has contributed over the years in countless ways and enriched the lives of its students.

Longfellow Elementary School

Longo, Angie

In appreciation for the love and support that you have given to your husband, family, and those whose hearts you have touched in this community.

George P. Longo

Longo, George P.

In the name of George P. Longo. To recognize his leadership in the school district.

Anonymous

Maxwell, Dorothy

Dorothy Maxwell’s love, patience, concern, and understanding played an important part in our child’s development. Education has made it possible for him to succeed.

Marguerite & Vern Kopp

Meerdink, LaMont

LaMont Meerdink has touched the lives of many children, teachers, and parents in his forty years of service to education. His genuine sensitivity and caring has been an inspiration to all who have known him.

Washington School PTA

Meerdink, Sally

Sally Meerdink is that magical teacher who finds the key to learning in each of “her children.” She pulls the stumblers and pushes the talented and they revel in their success. Her hallmark is hard work. She has made a difference in the lives of many children.

Jackson School Staff

Melzer, Arnold E.

To Arnold E. Melzer, a great teacher and debate coach, which nobody can refute!

Betty Jacobson & Nancy Schreiber

Moore, Everett

Ev Moore is an outstanding educator. His hard work and dedication have proven to be the catalyst for change in numerous areas benefiting many students.

Phi Delta Kappa

Nehring, Fred G.

In memory of Fred G. Nehring whose twenty-five years of service on the Board of Education contributed to the excellence of education for generations of students.

Nancy Z. Schreiber

Niela, Marvin

An Apple Award to Marvin Niela, to recognize his many years of friendly and dedicated teaching in the Industrial Arts Department of North High School.

Sheboygan North High School

Retired Men Teachers

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Otte, Gerald

We, the Jackson School PTA, sincerely thank Gerald Otte for twenty-two years of dedication and service to Jackson School and our children.

Jackson School PTA

Percey, Ralph & George Larsen

George Larson & Ralph Percey for their energy and enthusiasm in producing Brigadoon.

Joseph W. Garton

Peterson, George Kent

Skilled educator, successful administrator, scholar, gentleman, courteous to all, pleasant to work with, helpful, knowledgeable, civic-minded, devoted husband, high standards of achievement.

Henrietta & Carl Enger

Phipps, Doris

To Doris Phipps, former Director of Lightfoot School and County School Superintendent, presently Curriculum Coordinator for Oostburg Schools, a person dedicated to quality education for all children.

Oostburg Education Association

Plappert, Emma

Let's recognize the late Emma Plappert, whose gentle manner spawned a stream of budding journalists, writing for the Farnsworth Sabre Star and predecessor publications (1931-69).

Richard Eddy

Plappert, Emma

During 40 years of teaching, Emma Plappert touched the lives of several generations of students with her standard of excellence. She will long be remembered.

Sheboygan County Historical Society

Prescott, Kathryn

A profound desire for acquiring knowledge was instilled in me by Kathryn Prescott, my Sheboygan High Latin teacher.

Burnell F. Eckardt, M.D

Prescott, Kathryn

Kathryn Prescott, high school class play director, offered a magazine subscription to the person who first memorized his lines. I won and chose "Architectural Record," my first commitment to the profession.

Frederick C. Steinhaus

Radmer, Don

In appreciation for the love of music that you instilled in us as children- it has greatly enriched our adult lives.

*From your three sons, Richard,
Michael, and Robert Radmer*

Rajer, Charlotte

In memory of her outstanding work at James Madison Elementary School.

Ramm, E. F.

To my father E.F. Ramm who served on the Sheboygan School Board (1943- 1955), and laid the cornerstone (1953-54) for James Madison School, which my two children attended.

Jodell Henning, Pam & Jay

Rhiel, Arnold

A courtly, gentle man, dedicated to the art of teaching and devoted to the magic of theatre. Arnold Rhiel demonstrated teaching which positively affected the lives of students.

Friends of Arnold Rhiel

Rhiel, Arnold

An Apple Award to Arnold Rhiel from his fellow North High School retired men teachers, in recognition of his many years of teaching.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Richdorf, Betty

In tribute to Betty Richdorf whose varied career in education included teaching, educational supervision, and a variety of services to her community.

Ivy League Garden Club

Ruggles, Elizabeth

I honor Elizabeth Ruggles whose dedicated career in high school business education ranked her as an outstanding teacher by all who knew her.

Dorothy Simon

Ruggles, Jean

I honor Jean Ruggles whose dedication and enthusiasm as a primary educator were an inspiration to her pupils and to me as a beginning teacher.

Doeothy Simon

Rural One-Room School Teachers

This tribute is in memory of the thousands of young people who taught in rural one-room schools grade one through eight during the first half of the twentieth century and who contributed to an excellent program of education for rural children.

Mr. & Mrs. Terry Nelson

Rural One-Room Schools

I pay tribute to the fine educational training received during my ten years teaching in one-room rural schools. Success there meant success anywhere.

Ebba L. Dahlberg

Rusch-Wesley, Jean

The Sheboygan Service Club and the Sheboygan Service Foundation make this contribution as an Apple Award Tribute to Jean Rusch-Wesley.

Sheboygan Service Foundation, Inc.

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Scherer, Lee

Lee is a special person who will be missed. A school secretary, a health room aid, a PTA pal, but most of all a friend.

Jackson School Staff

Schnell, Fred

My tribute to Mr. Fred Schnell, Principal, Jefferson School. He reached his goal “to open new doors to the good life” which helped all mankind.

Mrs. Esther (Befus) Romeis

School People

Srs. Ortrud & Kathleen- St. Clement’s. Mr. Urban-Sheboygan High. Nellie Thomas Flito Luedke-Sheboygan County Training. These above and others!

Mrs. Charlotte Lorenz

School People

Those who were strict, understanding, and thought that I could learn were the school people (teachers, administrators, whatever) whom I most appreciated.

Marvin & Doris Peterson

School People

In memory of all the teachers, administrators, and coaches who were instrumental in my education and school sport activities.

Stanley J. Schreiber

Schuetz, Emma

In honor of Miss Emma Schuetz, my fourth-grade teacher, who, over the years, continued her interest in her students’ well being.

Nancy Ziegler Schreiber

Schweingruber, Wilhelmine

In tribute to Minnie Schweingruber, a dear family friend, who dedicated her entire teaching career to Sheboygan youth who attended Sheridan School.

Emma Parey TenPas

Scott, Bernice

Bernice was the best teacher we ever had from Kindergarten through University of Wisconsin.

John & Anne Buchen

Scott, Bernice

I pay tribute to Bernice M. Scott, a leader in Sheboygan education of children and adults.

Margaret H. Schmidley

Scott, Bernice

We wish to recognize the outstandingly dedicated teaching career of Bernice Scott in Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Seefeldt, David

For David, whose patience and loving care have filled a void in the lives of many children.

Barbara D. Larsen

Shumaker, Dr. H. K.

In honor of Dr. H. K. Shumaker who promoted the pursuit of excellence in education by providing scholarships to hundreds of students at Bellevue High School, Bellevue, Ohio.

Mrs. Robert Ebenreiter

Sieker, Oscar

To Oscar Sieker, Science & Biology teacher- He made the courses very interesting. I could not wait to get to his class each day. A very dedicated teacher.

Wilbert O. Zehms

Smith, Henry Earl

To former Superintendent of Schools, Henry Earl Smith, who hired my husband, Gordon Bly, fresh from college to teach in South Milwaukee in 1932-33.

Carol Bly

Smith, Lawrence

He had patience, discipline, and created a learning environment involving all class members. Respect was earned without intimidation. His joy in teaching was evident.

Gordon C. Vieth

Soeteber, Henrietta Louise

To my mother who was also my teacher for several country school elementary grades.

Dr. Warren H. Soeteber

Soeteber, Warren

In the name of Warren Soeteber- to recognize his leadership in the school district.

Anonymous

Sorenson, Dale

Dale Sorenson- Our teacher, friend, and most of all, our Dad. The best teacher we have.

Children of Dale Sorenson

Spindler, Beatrice

An Apple Award to Beatrice Brandt Spindler, a graduate of the Sheboygan school system, who taught at Washington School, Sheboygan for 25 years, retiring in 1981.

Mrs. Esther Brandt

Stovall, Leslie A.

Leslie Stovall, a dedicated Sheboygan North High teacher, is given this Apple Award, and is remembered with affection by his fellow teachers, now retired.

*Sheboygan North High School Retired Men
Teachers*

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Stovall, Leslie A.

To Leslie A. Stovall, Sheboygan North Biology teacher, for his excellence in teaching, concern for students, and devotion to his career.

Mrs. Leslie A. Stovall

Teachers of Central High Class of '42

The Central High Class of '42 in reunion makes this donation in honor of all the teachers of the Class of '42.

Central High Class of '42

Thalacker, Albin

A group of retired Sheboygan North High men teachers wish to remember the dedicated years of service to Sheboygan education of Albin Thalacker.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Toepel, Roma

Roma Toepel taught six years in Elkhart Lake. Her teaching and parenting consisted of concern, enthusiasm, devotion, helpfulness, together with love and care for all.

Dr. Carl & Marilyn Toepel

Urban, William

William Urban- who called on me personally and persuaded me to continue my high school education after I had decided not to go back after my freshman year.

Mrs. Otto A. Jung

Van Driel, Marie

For Marie Van Driel, who opened exciting worlds of literature, theatre, and travel during delightful "off the subject" talks in English class.

Barbara D. Larsen

Van Driel, Marie

To Marie Van Driel, an Apple Award in recognition of her years of encouraging Sheboygan North High students to discover the richness of our literary heritage.

*Sheboygan North High School Retired Men
Teachers*

Van Driel, Marie

Marie taught English and Humanities at Sheboygan North High School for 27 years. Her unselfish efforts to motivate students, and improve the curriculum are remembered.

Van Driel Family & Friends

Van Leeshout, Mr.

In honor of Mr. Van Leeshout-Algebra and Geometry at Urban 1962-64.

Victoria Vollrath

Washington County Schools

I want to pay tribute to the one-room rural and two-room state graded schools that I attended in Washington County, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Mildred Berg

Waterman, Carl John

Dean, Lawrence University Conservatory

A director of uncommon abilities, lover of good fun, sensitive to the requirements demanded of vocal ensembles, Carl Waterman was "Mr. Music" for countless Lawrentians.

George Larsen

Watson, John (Jack)

An Apple Award from a group of retired Sheboygan North High School men teachers who fondly remember a dedicated veteran fellow teacher, John (Jack) Watson.

*Sheboygan North High School
Retired Men Teachers*

Welti, William

In loving memory of Professor William Welti for all the lives he touched preparing students at Lakeland College in Medicine, Science, Medical Technology, and Education.

Helen P. Welti and Friends

Mr. & Mrs. Myron Mueller

Miss Dorothy Simon,

Mr. & Mrs. Stan Schreiber

Mrs. A. Blade, Miss Etta Owen

Miss Helen Kjelson,

*Loizanne Bennet, Mary Lou Gentry, Mrs. John
Mattke*

Wetor, Esther

Esther Long Wetor, a former teacher in the Random Lake High School, served on school board there-graduated from Milwaukee Normal School- dedicated member of the teaching profession.

Betty Richdorf & Other Friends

Wick, Helen

To Helen Wick, an enthusiastic and effective librarian, friendly and creative in working with both young people and staff at North High School, Sheboygan, WI.

Sheboygan North High School

Retired Men Teachers

Wilke, Lester

To Les Wilke, an outstanding Sheboygan educator, principal of Washington School, Director of Recreation and advocate of physical fitness for the youth of Sheboygan.

Sheboygan North High School

Retired Men Teachers

Section 1 – Original Honorees

Wilson, Miss

1912-1913 Kindergarten- Miss Wilson was the teacher, a rather large middle-aged woman, large bosom, fitted waist and ankle length skirt. All black- the uniform of the day. I remember her well.

Darrell E. Garnett

Wilt, Gertie R.

Gertie R. Wilt, my mother and former teacher. She gave me her love, Christian values, and inspiration.

Jeannette Rilling

Women's Club Teacher Members

In honor of all the teachers who have been involved in the Women's Club of Sheboygan and their dedication to education.

The Women's Club of Sheboygan

Ziegler Schreiber, Nancy

To Nancy Ziegler Schreiber whose indefatigable spirit is one of the forces which caused the Heritage School organization, renovation, and program to come into existence.

Anonymous

Zeinemann, August, Alfred & Alvin

In honor and memory of my three oldest brothers, August, Alfred, and Alvin Zeinemann, who attended the Third Ward School.

Ernest Zeinemann